AFTER THE LYNCHING

Effect of the Mob Violence at New Orleans.

SERIOUS TROUBLE FEARED.

The Italian Government Will Demand Redress in Some Form or Other—Indignation Meetings Held in a Number of Different Cities.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Dr. T. S. Verdi, of this city, a well known Italian who has been a resident of the United States for forty years, says in connection with the New Orleans lynching: "I do not defend the men who were killed. They were probably a bad lot and may have been guilty of the murder of Chief Hennessy, but that is not the question. They were cleared under the operation of one of the institutions of civilization, and because they were cleared the people of New Orleans, Americans who glory in civilization, return to one of the worst forms of barbarism. If this angry uprising had occurred at the time of the assassination of Chief Hennessy, there might have been some excuse for it. But four months had elapsed, a trial was had and a verdict rendered. If the people will not abide by the operations of the law as provided, what use is there in courts of justice?

"I was sorry to notice that The Ecclitici had issued the manifesto it did. No good will come of agitating the matter. It is extremely dangerous to do so. There is, in my opinion, more lack of this murder than appears on the surface. The objection to Italian immigration from certain classes of other Europeans who may have been in this country a few years longer is significant, and raises a grave question that the government may have to deal with."

"This unpleasantness will give Mr. Blaine a chance to display his diplomatic ability, and let us hope the trouble will not be decided on the reciprocity plan. It is, indeed, a very opportune time for a diplomatic battle, as the abrogation of friendly relations between Italy and the United States will undoubtedly restrain the latter country from taking part in the world's Columbian fair. The most cautious diplomatic tactics are now necessary on both sides, and Italy will act with measured courtesy and esteem and international dignity toward the United States."

In his communication to the Italian government Mr. Blaine also informed it that the president had charged the governor of Louisiana to take effective measures to guard the Italian population of the city of New Orleans from further violence and to use every effort to bring the assassins to justice.

The premier also informed the chamber that United States Minister Porter had called upon him to convey the assurance of his government's regret, and to say that he trusted that as a result of explanations the friendly relations existing between Italy and America will be drawn even closer. When the premier had concluded his statement Deputy Bregan said that a note would be taken of the minister's statement. Deputy Ferris urged that the government demand from the United States indemnities for the families of the victims of the New Orleans mob.

THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT.

What It Proposes to Do About the Lynching in New Orleans.

LONDON, March 17.—A dispatch from Rome says that the government will take no further action in response to the massacre of Italian subjects at New Orleans, until word has been received from the American government as to its course. The popular feeling on the subject in Rome and other cities has not abated, and the demand for action is loud and imperative. The news had the effect, for the time, of stemming the current of partisan animosity, which has been running very high, both in the chamber of deputies and outside, and all parties appear united, for the time being, in indignation against America. This is considered, the dispatch says, a disquieting symptom, as the Rudini cabinet may go any length to please the popular sentiment.

It is stated that orders were given yesterday to suspend the directions previously given for diminishing the active force of the navy. The Baron di Brocchetto, naval attaché at Paris, says that the Italian navy is now one of the finest in the world, and could easily block entrance to the Mediterranean to any power except France or England, while sending swift sailing cruises to every ocean to prey on the commerce of an enemy. As to the Italian commerce, it is largely confined to the Mediterranean. The kai has shown the deep interest he feels in the naval appropriations by a fine presentation to Herr von Koscielski, a Polish member of the reichstag, who in the naval committee zealously and unsuccessfully advocated the grant of the first instalments for the three large new ironclads demanded by the government. The kaiser's gift is a splendid picture representing the fleet of the great elector the first Hohenzollern who ventured to undertake colonial enterprises. The dedication reads: "To Herr von Koscielski, in remembrance of his great attitude in favor of my navy, by his grateful emperor and king."

In the chamber of deputies yesterday Marquis Di Budini, the Italian prime minister, made a statement with regard to the killing in New Orleans, on Saturday last, of Italian prisoners, who had been acquitted on the charge of having murdered the late Chief Hennessy, of that city. The premier informed the chamber that the Italian government had taken prompt cognizance of the affair and had at once placed itself in communication with the American government.

ment through the Italian minister at Washington, Baron De Fava. In response to its representations Premier Rudini informed the chamber, the Italian government had received through the American secretary of state, Mr. Blaine, the assurance that President Harrison recognized the right of Italians resident in the United States to the protection of the government and laws of that country. This assurance was accompanied by an expression of the profound regret felt by the president for the unfortunate occurrence.

The Star yesterday evening said: "The impulsive feature of the New Orleans affair was the perfect disorderliness maintained throughout the proceeding. The champions of law and order stand aghast at such proceedings. The American press has said nothing as to what law and order really can."

A letter has been written to The Pall Mall Gazette by M. Frewen, a son-in-law of the late Leonard Jerome, in which that gentleman defends the action of the citizens of New Orleans in "straightening out" of the Italian question once for all, and he adds that he "leaves it to the old women of both sexes to moralize over the so-called excesses of the blood-stained populace, etc." The writer also commends the action of the men of Louisiana, who are not spoiled by the spirit of submission to the letter of the law, which has done so much to emasculate the human race."

The Pall Mall Gazette replying to Mr. Frewen's letter, criticizes it generally, but holds that "no man should not lift their hands in righteous horror and adds: "One branch of the Anglo-Saxon race does not differ from the other in this matter. The citizens of New Orleans, noting that the jury did not do its duty, said, we must by one means or another put them down."

The St. James Gazette, continuing its comments on the affair, says: "The incident shows that native Americans have not lost the quality of stern resolution which is sometimes dissolved by a life of comfort and luxury in modern society. The men who organized this defiance of formal justice are not ashamed of what they have done. They have defeated a society of foreign inflators who were trying to terrify a whole city. It is doubtful if John Bull has enough grit left in him to protest in as emphatic a manner as the citizens of New Orleans have protested."

AT NEW ORLEANS.

The City Quiet After the Lynching of the Italians.

NEW ORLEANS, March 17.—There is not the least bit of excitement in the city, matters having resumed the usual routine. Business is going on as usual and a stranger could not guess by outward signs that New Orleans had been the scene of a tragedy which startled the world.

In Father Maniritta's statement he said that he was sure that the letter that he received was from the Provenzano faction of the Mafia. This statement Mr. Joseph Provenzano yesterday morning most emphatically denied. He said that his first impulse was to have Father Maniritta arrested and he consulted Chile Gaspari regarding the matter, and was advised to make a public statement concerning the matter as the chief thought it would do more good.

Provenzano says that he has not been connected with the Mafia in any manner. On the contrary he has been an object of their enmity. "About five years ago," said Provenzano, "the Mafia sent me several letters threatening to kill me and my brother, unless we gave the sojety $1,000. We did not respond, and Jim Carnuso shortly afterwards came to me and said that he belonged to the society, and that we had better pay the money. He said that I could do so by going to the old lake and bandaging my head with a red handkerchief and leaving the money on a stump in the swamp near by. I was then to go about my business and they would get the money. I then went to some of my friends, whom I met under the St. Charles hotel, Jung Davy, Pat Meally and Ralph Morgan being the number, and they said not to pay it; that they would go with me in a wagon to see who was there to receive it. Jim Carnuso, who was along, said that this would not do. 'If you go with crowd,' said he, 'no one will appear.' I then dropped the matter and told Carnuso I have nothing more to do with the society, to give up his fruit stall in the French market and come on the levee and we would make him a free man. He said he would do so, as he was tired of the Mafia, having recently been selected on a committee to kill some one."

A clerk in the office of the registrar of voters, said yesterday afternoon that he had examined the registration books for the purpose of certifying the allegiance of the men executed by the people on Saturday, and that he found that every one of them was a registered voter of the city of New Orleans.

The flight of Foreman Seligman, of the jury, is looked upon with suspicion by the public, and it is put down as proof of guilt. It has been ascertained that the whole jury was not bought, but that the majority of them were recipients of money from the nine defendants. Mr. Mackey, one of the jurors, and the only one who has called for an investigation, says that five of the jury acted suspiciously, and six of the twelve, he among the number, stood out for the conviction of Maheca, Scoffidi and Monastero, and finding that the others would not agree with them, a mistrial was agreed on as to those three.

Governor Nichols sent an answer to Secretary Blaine last night. He refused to make it public until notified that the secretary had received it. The grand jury will further examine into the alleged bribery of jurors. Thomas McChristal, who was indicted a few days ago, was taken from prison to the district attorney's office yesterday and was closeted with that official for some time. It is generally believed that McChristal has made a confession in the matter, but the officials decline to state the nature of their business with the prisoner.

No Mafia in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, March 17.—The massacre of the eleven Italians at New Orleans on Saturday has created considerable interest among the Italians of this city. A mass meeting of the Italian residents of Buffalo has been called for on Thursday night. The Italian colony numbers about 12,000 people and nearly all are residents of the city and are naturalized citizens.

Mr. A. J. Isbell, a prominent Italian attorney said yesterday evening: "The Mafia are not Italians; they are Sicilians and are only governed by Italy by right of common descent. There is not a single Mafia in Buffalo out of the penitentiary and there is a forfeit of $5,500 up now for the production of one such man in our midst."

A slight feeling exists.

KANSAS CITY, March 17.—There is a bitter feeling of denunciation among the Italian residents of this city over Saturday's tragedy at New Orleans. They gathered in groups all day and freely discussed the matter. They are unit in demanding that the Italian government take immediate cognizance of the affair and the American government to make suitable reparation.

In Omaha.

OMAHA, March 17.—A meeting of the leading Italians of this city was held yesterday and resolutions were passed condemning the lynching at New Orleans. Maletta Grisepi, president of the society, emphatically declared that while the organization did not endorse the Mafia, it deplored their violence.

The Mafia, however, has sympathizers in Omaha. After the murder of Chief of Police Hennessy appeals were sent out by the accused men for aid from their countrymen everywhere. Omaha Italians responded liberally, and only a week ago $300 was sent from this city to the accused. The participants in yesterday's meeting deny all knowledge of this and allege that they furnished no part of the contribution.

Newspaper Comments.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The Chronicle commenting on the New Orleans tragedy, says: "Althoughlynching is always to be deplored, if vigilant vengeance was ever defensible, it certainly was in the case of the people of New Orleans."

The Call says it may be that these Sicilians should have been found guilty, but the facts ought to have been clearly established and leading citizens would be justified in taking the law into their own hands.

The Examiner says the massacre cannot be defended in cold blood. Every man accused of crime has a right to legal trial, but this right is reduced to mockery if that trial must have only one result.

In New York.

NEW YORK, March 17.—L'Ecclitico published a telegram from Palermo, Sicily, which stated that there was great indignation in that city over the New Orleans tragedy. The American citizens have migrated to the south of France fearing violence at the hands of the populace. Il Popolo Romano speaks of America as a friendly nation, but the protest of Rudini, it says, should be none the less firm.

Telegrams expressive of indignation of the Italian colonies throughout America continue to be received at the office of Il Progresso in this city. A dispatch from the same paper from New Orleans says that the colony there is calm, and that its members are grateful for the sympathy of sister colonies.

Protest from Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, March 17.—Steps were taken last night to arrange a mass meeting to denounce and protest in the name of 12,000 Italians residing in Pittsburg, Allegheny county and neighboring industrial towns against the massacre of their countrymen in New Orleans. A committee was appointed to secure a hall, engage speakers, raise money to defray the expense of the meeting and to name the date of meeting.

Mass Meeting in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, March 17.—There are about 500 Italians in this city, and at several important gatherings the New Orleans murderers were denounced. Telegrams were sent to Washington and to New York demanding that immediate action be taken to secure reparation.

Crying for Blood.

CHICAGO, March 17.—A special to The Post from Detroit says: Detroit's Mafia, who numbers 400 members, will hold a meeting Tuesday to take steps to have the New Orleans murders avenged. The local Mafia is crying for blood.

Acquited.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., March 17.—The cases against Alexander Fisher and Lawrence Kline, charged with riot and assault on Pit Boss Thomas London and Mike Belli at the Fan Works of W. J. Rainey on Feb. 25, were tried yesterday. The offenses were alleged to have been committed during the riotous proceedings there when a big body of strikers marched down to stop the men from working at Rainey's. The men were both acquitted, but were required to pay the costs. Harry Diligatti, an Italian, was convicted of assault and shooting with intent to murder Joseph and Thomas London on the day of the rioting. The other cases were postponed.

Arrested for Smuggling.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Miss Jennie Shea, the dressmaker whose two trunks containing $10,000 worth of dresses, etc., were seized by customs officers, was arrested yesterday on a charge of smuggling and gave $2,000 bail for her appearance on Friday when the examination will take place.

Given Further Time.

NEW YORK, March 17.—William H. M. Sistare, the banker, under indictment for grand larceny in misappropriating funds belonging to a Philadelphia firm, was yesterday granted until Monday next to consider his plea.

VESSELS WRECKED.

Three Steamers Ashore Off Martha's Vineyard.

GALENA, NINA AND THE TRIANA.

The Greatest Ocean Disaster That Has Occurred Since the Hurricane at Samoa. Various Other Dispatches From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Not since the Savoy disaster has such damage been caused to the American navy as that of Saturday and Sunday. Three vessels are now ashore along the coast of Martha's Vineyard—the Galena, the Nina, and the Triana. The latter vessel, the navy department is informed, went ashore off Cuttyhunk Sunday. She is in a very dangerous position and if the weather continues rough may become a total loss. The Triana left Newport Sunday morning to render assistance to the Nina and the Galena.

A dispatch from Lieutenant Commander Bicknell, in command of the Galena at the time she went ashore, to the navy department states that the Galena lost her mizzen post and part of her sail. He expressed the hope that the Nina would be saved if the weather was favorable. No mention was made of saving the Galena, and at the navy department she is regarded as totally lost.

The Galena at the time of the disaster was being towed to the Portsmouth, N.H., navy yard for repairs. Her old engines had been taken out and her new engines were upon the upper deck, and were to have been placed in position at the Portsmouth navy yard. The engines cost $30,000. The Galena was a third rate vessel of 1,900 tons and cost the United States in building and repairs put upon her nearly $1,000,000.

LEXINGTON's new city directory gives her a population of 40,208, so it is claimed. A good many of her people must have been out in her "poor house" when the census was taken last summer.

THE Constitutional convention is drawing to a close. A committee was appointed yesterday to prepare an address to the people, bringing out the "strong points" of the proposed new constitution. A good idea.

The Register blows a good deal about "solid Richmond." Statements of the three National banks in that city, published last week, show $503,000 individual deposits. Maysville's two National banks show about $700,000 deposits, and the total bank deposits in this city amount to not less than $1,000,000.

HON. ROGER Q. MILLS, of Texas, says of the silver question and the issue of the next Presidential campaign:

The law passed last year providing for the purchase of 4,500,000 ounces of silver bullion per month, equal to about $5,000,000, has so far had no perceptible effect in relieving the distresses of the country. But if we had free coinage it would produce no appreciable effect for good until taxation is reduced. The first step to take is to reduce the rates of taxation to the lowest possible point, and increase imports and exports to the highest possible point. That will lower the price of manufactures, raise the price of agricultural products, distribute the congested wealth of the country and revive its industries in all departments. When we accomplish this we can settle the silver question. Until it is done we should permit nothing to distract our counsels or divide our forces. If we act wisely we will unite as one man and strike with all our force for a reduction of the tariff and an enlargement of our trade. It would be folly for us now to go to wrangling over silver and divide our forces. We are for gold for revenue only.

I have sold four dozen of it within the last sixty days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." A Hero Indeed.

There is a man in Atchison who is a hero, though if you should call him one he would scarcely know what the word meant. His wife recently died and left him with eight children. He labors hard by the day and manages his housework after night. After doing a hard day's work he will begin the family washing, to be finished and hung on the line next morning, the ironing to be done the second night. He could not afford a sewing woman, so he has, by constantly trying, learned to run a machine and cut and fit.

The oldest girl is growing up, and will be a great help to him in a few years. His little children are sent to school every day, and they appear as neatly and comfortably dressed as any in the school. He did not scatter his family among his relatives nor send them to an orphan asylum. He kept them together, and their home is almost as comfortable as it was when the mother was alive. He is a hero, and the greatest kind of a hero, from the fact that he does not realize that he is a hero at all.—Atchison Globe.

MARITAL TROUBLES.

Two Men Claim Their Wives Drove Them From Home—Suits for Divorce Follow.

Two suits for divorce have been brought in the Mason Circuit Court since the January term, and the plaintiff in each case bases his cause of action upon rather unusual grounds.

Each alleges that his wife drove him from home.

It's a common thing to hear of a woman being cast out and driven from home by some drunken, hard-hearted man whom she calls husband, but in these cases now pending in the court the tables were turned, and the "hubbies" were the ones who were driven away. Poor fellows!

Jefferson Williams versus Kate Williams is the style of the first suit. They were married in 1880. He alleges that "he was at the time of said marriage poor but a hard working man, sober at all times, and he provided well for his said wife and gave her such comforts as he was able, and treated her at all times and on all occasions kindly and affectionately as a dutiful husband; but he says that notwithstanding his said kindness and that he discharged all his duties to her as a good husband, she on or about February 1, 1890, drove him from their home and told him she would never again be his wife or live with him as such, and that he must not at his peril ever come about her or to her house or home again, and she then and there used vile and opprobrious names and epithets towards him and cursed and abused him most shamefully, indecently and in a manner disgraceful on the part of a wife."

Whitaker & Robertson are the plaintiff's attorneys.

The other case is that of F. M. Brewer versus Lucy Brewer. They were married in 1886 in Bracken County, but are now living in Mason. She spends much of her time at Cincinnati, according to the petition. One child was born to them. Plaintiff alleges that "he and the defendant lived together for about one year, at the end of which time the defendant drove him away from her, * * * commanding him to stay away from her, and that since that time he has been forced by her to live separate and apart from her." He alleges other grounds in addition to the above. A. A. Wadsworth and Frank O'Donnell are his attorneys.

There are two sides to every story. The plaintiffs have given their version of their marital troubles. When the defendants are heard they may tell an entirely different story of their domestic infelicity.

THE ST. PATRICK'S CROSS.

E. A. SUTTON.

Come, raise me up, Alannah! Lift me up a little more,
And let the sunshine touch my bed and stream upon the floor;
Draw back the curtain farther yet—let enter ev'ry ray
And make the place look cheerful, child, for this is Patrick's Day.

Once more I bid it welcome—'tis the last for me, I fear,
I've had a long, long journey, but the end is drawing near;
Thank God, I've seen my share of years, but, somehow, child, to-day,
My heart grows warm and youthful, and my thoughts are far away.

You know my old brown chest, astore: go now and lift the lid,
And bring me what you'll find there, in the bottom corner hid;
A little colored pasteboard cross—is faded, quaint and old,
And yet I prize it dearer far than if 'twere solid gold.

You know my old brown chest, astore: go now and lift the lid,
And bring me what you'll find there, in the bottom corner hid;

A dry and withered rose-leaves speak of sunmers past and gone,
So life's bright early spring-time fits this little cross lives on.

It tells me of the first time that I wore it, long ago,
Pinned here, upon my shoulder, ah! but sure you'll never know.

How grand I felt that morning, with my cross and ribbon green;

God and country bound together—I was prouder than a queen.

How bright and gay my spirits, as we children climbed the hill!

To seek for four-leaved shamrocks whilst the dew was sparkling still,

Whilst the blackbird sung his welcome—the primrose showed her face,

And violets were nodding from each cozy hiding-place.

My little cross around you, oh, how many times eling!

Old times, old scenes, old faces to my mind this day you bring;

Come, pl't it on my shoulder, child, in spite of age and pain,

For Ireland and St. Patrek let me wear it once again.

The weight of years may bend me, but my soul will never grow,

May God be with the good old land, and bless her honored day.

And around the cross entwined, may her Shamrocks e'er be met,

That as she bore the burden she may share the triumph yet.

She Smiled.

I noticed she was pretty,

I thought she smiled at me;

Just after I had passed her,

I turned my head to see;

A bit of icy sidewall,

My earless feet beguiled,

I cracked a flagstone with my head;

And then I know she smiled.

FUEL GAS.

A Company to Manufacture the Article Soon to Be Organized.

Required Amount of Stock Already Subscribed—Something About the Enterprise.

The organization of a company to manufacture fuel gas is among the probabilities of the early future.

Some of Maysville's solid business men are back of the enterprise.

They have been investigating the matter for some time, and believe gas for heating purposes can be manufactured and furnished the people of Maysville at much less cost than they now pay for coal. Their plans have not been fully matured.

Since writing the above, it is learned that the organization of the company is assured.

Stock to the amount of $8,000 has already been subscribed. This is sufficient to establish the plant.

Among the parties most prominently interested are Messrs. Thomas Wells, Robt. A. Cochran, W. W. Ball, Judge Wall, Daniel Perrine and Dr. Fraze. The names of all the stockholders have not been learned. The enterprise has a solid backing, as may be seen from the above names.

The plant will be operated by a process recently invented by a gentleman named Harris. He claims he can make gas for heating purposes at one-third the cost of coal.

The organization of the company will be perfected in a short time.

WORK OF THE FLAMES.

Three Frame Residences Destroyed by Fire—Amount of Loss and Insurance.

The one-story frame residence of Mrs. Amanda Ross, in Clifton, was entirely destroyed by fire about 4 o'clock this morning, together with most of the contents. She saved only a few articles of furniture. The origin of the fire is not known. Mrs. Ross was awakened shortly before 4 o'clock by some noise and discovered the two rear rooms in flames. She had but little opportunity to save anything. The loss amounts to $800 or $1,000. She had $300 insurance on her furniture in the Lancashire and the building was insured for $300 in the Union—Geo. W. Sulser, agent.

The one-story frame residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Tolle adjoins Mrs. Ross' property, and it also was burned to the ground. There were no means at hand to check the flames. Mrs. Tolle succeeded in saving most all of her household and kitchen furniture. Her house was valued at something over $800, and it was insured for $1,000 in the German, of Freeport, Ill.

The attendance at the Christian Church last night was even larger than on the night before. The main room was crowded to its full capacity, and many occupied seats in the gallery. "What Is Baptism?" was discussed by the pastor, Rev. C. S. Lucas, in the earnest, eloquent, impressive and forcible style characteristic of all his discourses. His text was the nineteenth verse of the twenty-eighth chapter of Matthew. Five persons united with the Church—for by confession and one by letter. Preaching again to-night at 7:30. Subject: "Who Should Be Baptized?" All cordially invited. Thirty have been added to the church during the meeting, and interest in the services continues to increase.

Mr. Thomas T. Horan, who resides near Minerva, was in town yesterday afternoon to look after the collection of the insurance on his residence. It was a new two-story frame, and was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday. He and his wife were away from home at the time, and it is not known how the fire started. The building and contents were burned. Loss about $2,000; insured for $1,100 in the German, of Freeport, Ill.

Miss Anna Conway, of Cincinnati, died this morning at the home of her sister Mrs. John McGraw, near Millwood. Funeral to-morrow at 11 a. m. at St. Patrick's Church.

Sweeping reductions in dry goods and notions. Beginning to-morrow, the stock of the late M. B. McKrell will be closed at greatly reduced figures. Don't miss this opportunity to secure bargains. See ad.

Mr. Will Wilson will wed Miss Rosalind English Calloway, of Louisville, to-morrow evening. The couple will spend some time here, on their bridal trip, with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Wilson.

Miss Anna Morgan entertained some of her friends Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. R. Blaine, of Lexington. After luncheon was served, a "quotation contest" ensued, which was much enjoyed by all.

A car-load of wire was received Thursday by Frank Owens Hardware company, composed of the very best quality of galvanized barb, galvanized plain and plain annealed wire. Call on them, see wire and prices.

J. H. Woolums, Midway's postmaster, disappeared some days ago, and yesterday he surrendered himself to the authorities at Indianapolis. He is short in his accounts. Part of the money was spent on a spree. He wound up among the bums in the police station at Indianapolis.

LUCKLESS PILE-DRIVERS.

One Loses An Arm And Two Others Badly Injured About the Head.

A series of incidents occurred yesterday afternoon and this morning at "Sullivan's Point," a mile or so below town, on the C. & O. Railroad. And there was a rather peculiar circumstance connected with the happenings.

Shortly after 12 o'clock yesterday a young man named Scott Owens was taken to Dr. Owens' office by Charles Lukins. Lukins is known as "Buck" Lukins, and he and his companion were part of a force of hands engaged in driving some piles at "Sullivan's Point" to protect the railroad. Owens was struck by some part of the machinery about noon, and was suffering from a painful wound, the blow having fractured his jaw bone. Dr. Owens dressed the unfortunate fellow's injuries, and the couple left.

Last evening Lukins was taken to the Doctor's office by Philip Voltz, another one of his fellow workmen. He was suffering from a painful scalp wound, and other bruises about the head, having been injured in a manner somewhat similar to the accident that had befallen his friend Owens. His wounds received the proper attention and the couple left.

This morning about 9 o'clock Dr. Owens was again called on. This time it was Voltz who needed his attention. An hour or so after the force of hands commenced work this morning, Voltz was engaged in fitting a ring over the end of a pile when the heavy weight fell and crushed his right arm. Amputation was necessary, and the arm was taken off at the elbow by Dr. Owens.

All the unfortunates are young men. Voltz's home is at Dayton, O.

Mrs. HIRAM STEWART died yesterday at the home of the family a few miles south this city. She was well along in years.

We have received in full a satisfactory settlement of our recent loss by fire from Duley & Baldwin, and can say they are hard workers for the interest of their patrons.

CANNON LAUNDRY CO.

THE Louisville Post has the following in reference to a couple well known in this city: "Mr. Giles Shine, who has made favorable impression in the support of Margaret Mather, is the husband of Miss Lavinia Shannon, the Southern girl, who is one of the most promising of the younger actresses. Mr. Shine has been entertained during the week by several of his wife's relatives."

Attendance at the Christian Church last night was even larger than on the night before. The main room was crowded to its full capacity, and many occupied seats in the gallery. "What Is Baptism?" was discussed by the pastor, Rev. C. S. Lucas, in the earnest, eloquent, impressive and forcible style characteristic of all his discourses. His text was the nineteenth verse of the twenty-eighth chapter of Matthew. Five persons united with the Church—for by confession and one by letter. Preaching again to-night at 7:30. Subject: "Who Should Be Baptized?" All cordially invited. Thirty have been added to the church during the meeting, and interest in the services continues to increase.

MINER'S MAXIMS!

A Bad Workman Quarrels With His Tools.

Likewise people find fault with cheap and "bargain" shoes which do not wear well.

Miner's Shoes are both reasonable and of excellent wearing qualities.

Every one knows that breaking in a young span of Shoes is ecstasy, or would be, if fitting Shoe dealers could be found.

Miner prides himself on his ability to give a perfect fit.

We do not give as an inducement "a pair of crutches" with every pair of Shoes, but we do give our guarantee.

A man is held by his associates according to his worth.

In like manner, the reputation of Shoes goes up or down, according to their worth in value.

When you have found a faithful friend you do not cast him aside when you find no immediate use for him, do you? If you do, you are wrong.

When, by actual experience, you find that Miner's Shoes substantiate all that is said of them, do not let it rest here, but pass the good word around among your friends.

Our experience, in the merits of Shoes, is derived from the fact that we have been for the last

A NEW-STYLED PROPELLER
Which the Inventor Claims Will Revolve through Ocean Travel.

BALTIMORE, March 17.—Ship builders and marine men will this week be permitted to inspect the strange looking steamer Howard Cassard, which Mr. Eyer, the inventor, asserts will revolutionize ocean travel. The shaft and propeller will be adjusted, giving the visitors an opportunity to see in place a four-bladed screw, each blade of which is set on a different line of rotation or in spiral order, increasing the pitch toward the stern, as compared with preceding blade or blades.

The object is to embody in a single screw as much surface as now exists in a twin screw-driver by the same amount of power. The inventor asserts that this feature of the vessel is an experiment. The dock trial of the vessel will take place about April 15.

A DESPERATE TRAMP.

He Was Refused Shelter in Muncie Jail, But Gets There.

MUNCIE, Ind., March 17.—Last night John Brooks, a tramp from Franklin county, met Sheriff Swain and asked for shelter in jail, and when refused he deliberately kicked in a fine plate glass at Hoover's cigar store, in the Opera block, saying he would make them take him.

The officers then took charge of him, but offered to permit a crowd of citizens to blacksneak him out of town. He said if they did he would return and burn down the town, as he had no relatives, could get no work, and would not freeze. The officials, much puzzled, jailed him.

THE GREAT COKE STRIKE.

After Six Weeks' Struggle the Leaders Acknowledge Defeat.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., March 17.—The great strike of the 15,000 coke workers of the Connellsburg region has entered upon its sixth week. While the leaders of the United Mine workers will not say so publicly, they privately admit that the men have been defeated. The wages lost thus far have been over $30,000, and within a few days will pass the $1,000,000 mark. The iron market is not sufficiently healthy to make the demand for coke pressing.

MacQuerry's Case Undecided.

CLEVELAND, O., March 17.—The ecclesiastical jury in the trial of the Rev. Howard MacQuerry met in this city yesterday. Two sessions of the court were held, but no final agreement was reached, and the court adjourned. It is said that of the five ministers on the jury three find MacQuerry guilty of heresy and two dissent. The members are not quite satisfied as to the punishment. The verdict will be handed to Bishop Leonard to-morrow and will then be made public.

Domestic Troubles.

COSHOCKTON, O., March 17.—James Cheney, Jr., attempted suicide and tried to murder his wife. The cause of the tragedy was domestic trouble. His wife applied for a divorce Friday and left him and went to live with Mrs. Maylor. Cheney called at the house and wanted her to live with him, and upon her refusal he drew a razor and cut his throat from ear to ear. His wife started for help, but he grabbed her and threw her down, cutting her throat seriously.

School Teacher Bodily Used Up.

CLEVELAND, O., March 17.—Noah Young and his three sons started after school teacher L. A. Allen's scalp at Eno, a small town near Springfield yesterday. They dragged Allen out, knocked him down with a billy and then nearly kicked him to death because, as they alleged, he punished Young's small son with undue severity. No arrests have as yet been made.

Looms Running.

FALL RIVER, Mass., March 17.—One hundred and fifty looms are running at the Cornell mill to-day. At the meeting of strikers held yesterday morning a committee was appointed to investigate the condition of the families of the men on a strike and report the names of those likely to need aid.

Around the World.

COLOMBO, March 17.—The Canadian Pacific railway's new steamer Empress of India, which is making an excursion voyage around the world, arrived at Penang Sunday, and left there Sunday night for Singapore, where she remains two days to give the passengers an opportunity to visit points of interest.

Whole Family Poisoned.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., March 17.—The family of Edward Moore, a farmer living several miles south of this city, was taken suddenly ill last evening. A physician was called who found that they had been poisoned. Two of the children will die. The other three are seriously ill but may recover.

Assaulted By Highwaymen.

LIMA, O., March 17.—J. H. Bell, living on West Wayne street, was assaulted by highwaymen and dangerously wounded, but they were frightened away before they secured anything valuable. He was hit in the head with some blunt instrument producing a ugly wound.

Prize Fighting Legal in Indiana.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 17.—The court has ordered the release of Cory, Telli and Clark, who were arrested for taking part in a recent prize fight near this city. Judge Snyder decided that under the laws of Indiana prize fighting is not illegal in this state.

Ten Thousand People Sick of La Grippe.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 17.—La grippe claimed its first victim in Minneapolis this winter late Friday night. The epidemic prevails to an extent which caused much uneasiness. A careful estimate places the number of cases in this city at fully 10,000.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 17.—The government here this morning, speaking with authority, says that Sir Charles Tupper will represent Canada at the approaching negotiations at Washington, while with him will be associated Sir William Whiteway, on behalf of Newfoundland, and the Hon. Joseph Chamberlain as the representative of the British government.
